Alma Mater

*Thine to mould us, Alma Mater,
In the beauty of thy grace,
Thou the mistress of our service
To our race.*

*Thou hast sown thy golden seedlings
On our rude uncultured soil;
Let the morn of our awaking
Be blest with toil.*

*From the clustered rhododendron
Doth thy living fountain flow
Till our fields are full of blossoms
And the glow*

*Of the sunrise o'er the mountains
Paints the world a jeweled plain
Where thy grateful sons and Daughters hold domain.*

*When our grain is ripe to harvest,
And the cooling dews descend
On the weary, happy reapers
At the end—*

*We salute thee, Alma Mater;
At thine altar may we sing,
And our efforts through the years
Thy tribute bring.*

The societies at Mars Hill prove to be paths which lead students through the archways of lasting friendships, broadening cultural experiences, and enriching spiritual and mental activity. The combined ideals of truth, purity, and fidelity, dignity, simplicity, and conservatism are but lights which gleam over the arcade illuminating the path for all who walk therein.

MERCER UNIVERSITY

With opening of the Fall Quarter in September, Mercer's faculty, curriculum, and general advantages will be strengthened by the income from more than one million dollars of additional endowment.

Every department of the College of Liberal Arts will be in an even better position than in the past to do excellent work.*

In addition the new School of Christianity, with a Dean and five endowed chairs, will open its doors to students planning a career in the ministry or other religious service. Mercer is today in better position to achieve its ideal—genuine liberal education under Christian auspices for intelligent young men and women—than ever before in its history.

*The Law School, temporarily closed on account of war conditions, will re-open in September.
